

A Discussion on the Modern Street Car

Hosted by the Tucson Association of REALTORS®
Green Committee

April 23, 2010
9am to 11am

*Tucson Association of REALTORS®
2445 N. Tucson Blvd.*

The Tucson Association of REALTORS® Green Committee invites members of the community to an in depth discussion on the modern streetcar and what it means for the City of Tucson.

Speakers:

Jim Glock, Director of Transportation for the City of Tucson

Jim will provide an overview of the modern street car project and the opportunities for transit oriented development.

Adam Weinstein, The Mercado District

Adam will be addressing what the streetcar means to the private sector, housing and retail development as well as willingness to invest in downtown Tucson and future obstacles.

Steve Farley, Arizona State Representative, District 28

Steve will provide an overview of the regional impact through the eyes of a state legislator. He will also address the Federal Livable Communities Initiative, as well as the State's inter-city rail study between Tucson and Phoenix.
